

Application for media accreditation to the Riksdag

The session of the Nordic Council 2025 will take place at the Riksdag on 27–30 October. The session is open to journalists and photographers who have applied for and been granted media accreditation to the Riksdag. With this form you can apply for press accreditation to the Riksdag for the session.

Please attach the completed form together with any other attachments and send via email to press@riksdagen.se.

If your application is granted, you will receive a decision by email with information including instructions about how to get your media pass and rules that apply in the Riksdag.

Requirements for obtaining media accreditation to the Riksdag

Media accreditation to the Riksdag can be granted to you if you have tasks of a primarily journalistic nature for a media company, either as an employee or a freelancer. This means that all your tasks together correspond to at least 50% of a full working week (50% of 40 hours) during the dates to which the application for accreditation applies. These should be professional activities, for which you receive market-based pay rates.

Application period

I apply for media accreditation for the session of the Nordic Council at the Riksdag 27–30 October.

I apply for media accreditation for the award ceremony for the Nordic Council prizes which will take place on Tuesday 28 October at 18:00–19:30.

Please note that there are a limited number of places available. A press pool consisting of representatives from the Nordic countries will be appointed to follow the ceremony as the prizes are awarded. The event will be broadcast on norden.org and riksdagen.se where photographs will also be published.
